Membership Policy

We are a members Club, therefore, everyone that wishes to participate in the sport of Rugby whether on the pitch or off, at North Petherton RFC must join one of the membership groups.

Membership of the club shall be open to anyone regardless of sex, age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other belief. However, limitation of membership according to available facilities is allowable on a non-discriminatory basis.

The Club may refuse membership or expel from membership any member whose conduct is deemed to bring the Club into disrepute. An appeal against such a decision may be made to the Club's committee.

The Club at the Annual General Meeting shall decide the amount of subscription and the fees payable listed in the constitution. Membership will become valid upon receipt of a Membership card, and until that time the applicant will not be entitled to any privileges of the Club. This will take a minimum of three days. Membership shall be current from the 1st September in one year, until the 31st August in the next year.
